ARRESTED ON FORGERY CHARGE

John Smith Aged 21 Brought Here from Pennsylvania— Claimed He Signed J. F. Conant's Name to a Check and Secured $22—Had Another but Didn't Get it Cashed

At the request of Chief Murphy, John Chermansky, who says his name in English is John Smith, was arrested in Nanticoke, Pa., by the police on the charge of forgery on Tuesday. Sergeant Twomey was sent there to bring him home and arrived here with him on the 8:50 train Thursday evening. The fellow is nearly 22 years of age and talks poor English.

It is claimed that on July 6 Smith forced the name of J. F. Conant of this city and thereby secured the sum of $22.50 from a Greek restaurant keeper in Bath street. The check was presented to the restaurant keeper, appeared to be all right, and he cashed it without hesitation, and would probably have cashed another which it is claimed Smith had for a larger amount but his funds would not allow him to accommodate the stranger.

Some time after the fellow had secured the money on the check and the check had been found to be worthless, as the name was a forgery, complaint was made to the police and an effort was made to head off the fellow before he got out of the state, but it missed.

SIX COWS KILLED ON NORWICH-WESTERY LINE
Struck by Car on Rounding Curve—Belonged to Lafayette Main.

Main's cows on the long curve at the Summit switch, killing one outright, injuring three more so that they died within a short time, and the others were badly injured. The car hit the cows on a curve where it was impossible to see them until right on top of them and went with such speed as to grind the carcasses of one into the roadbed for a distance of fifty feet or more. The cows were huddled closely together when hit, accounting for the large number killed out of the herd. The carcasses had not been removed up to Thursday night.
